Reflection Questions:

1. What was gleaning and how did it serve both the rich and poor? What are some modern ways this principle could be applied today?
2. What things did Boaz do that impressed you with his character?
3. What stood out to you most about Ruth in the way she handled her situation?
4. How did Boaz and Ruth contribute to Naomi having her hope restored? How does another person's faith & obedience contribute to hope in others?
5. What makes it so difficult to trust that God has a bigger plan that involves our life?
6. What is something you can do today that is faithful to God's way of living?
